

Supplementary Study and Examination Regulations

for the Undergraduate Program

B.A. Theology/Development Studies (TDS)

On the basis of § 32 of the Law on Universities in the State of Baden-Württemberg (Landeshochschulgesetz – LHG), last amended by the Third Law on the Amendment of Higher Education Regulations (Drittes Hochschulrechtsänderungsgesetz – 3. HRÄG), dated April 1, 2014 (GBl. dated April 8, 2014, p. 99), the Senate of the International Hochschule Liebenzell adopted the following course-specific regulations on March 9, 2022.

The Rector has given his approval to this version of the course-specific regulations on March 9, 2022.

Changes that only affect the structure of the study program and the conduct of examinations can be decided by the examination board. All other changes require the approval of the senate.

§1 Scope and coverage	2
§2 Degree	2
§3 International Degree Program	2
§4 Number of examinations	2
§5 Internship	2
§6 Study Abroad Semester	2

§1 Scope and coverage

The supplementary study and examination regulations apply to the undergraduate program Theology/Development Studies (TDS). They are valid in the current version. The study concept B.A. TDS in the currently valid version is part of these regulations.

§2 Degree

Successful completion of the program results in the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Theology/Development Studies.

§3 International Degree Program

The undergraduate program in Theology/Development Studies (TDS) is an international program. The language of instruction in the compulsory classes is English. Elective classes may also be taught in a different language.

§4 Number of examinations

The number of examinations required for successful completion of the program can be found in the B.A. TDS study concept in the currently valid version.

§5 Internship

(1) An internship semester (class B2604) is an obligatory part of the undergraduate program Theology/Development Studies, optionally in the fifth or sixth semester.

(2) The internship semester should normally be completed abroad. The details are regulated in the course syllabus B2604 and Internship Regulations B.A. TDS. The internship semester is noted in the transcript of records.

§6 Study Abroad Semester

(1) A mandatory component of the international B.A. program Theology/Development Studies (TDS) is a study abroad semester as well as the course B2021 Organizing a Study Abroad Semester. The study abroad semester shall be completed either in the fifth or sixth regular semester.

(2) The study achievements recognized at a foreign university are noted in the transcript of records. The recognition of study achievements abroad is regulated in § 25 as part of the study and examination regulations. The examination board decides on the recognition of examination achievements.